THOUGHTS TO PONDER

Welcome to a special (long!!) issue of the WCTP E-Newsletter! This issue is the first going out to many of the wonderful people we met at the Wilson County Fair. We have a lot to tell you about as we prepare for one of the most important elections in memory. Our country has reached a fork in the road where we must decide if we want to support individual liberty or government control of our lives. Our President and the Democrat-controlled Congress have made it clear that they support a government that controls the people. What about you?

A FEW WORDS FROM SHERRIE

Although we don't usually give homework (!!), Sherrie has asked that we print this as the "Tea Party Assignment for September and October"!!

We MUST get down to the business of getting our country back. We need to actively work for conservative candidates. There is no time like the present to get out and help these fine conservatives get elected to office.

Get involved in a conservative campaign. There are signs to be put up, phone calls to be made, mailings to be addressed, door to door campaigning to be done, and money to be raised. Don't just sit around and complain. Get involved, Get active. We have a small window of opportunity to turn our country around this November. The General Election will be held in all precincts of Wilson County on Tuesday, November 2nd. The hours to vote will be from 7:00 am until 7:00 pm. (Note: Early voting 10/13 thru 10/28)

Don't be a bench warmer. Become an active involved player!

GEORGE MCDONALD – DEMOCRAT CANDIDATE 17TH DISTRICT STATE SENATE

Farmer, Small Businessman, Community Leader & Huge Recipient of YOUR Taxpayer Dollars!

As most of you know, George McDonald is running as the Democrat candidate against Republican Mae Beavers for the 17th District State Senate seat currently held by Beavers. Rumor is that he's a 'conservative' Democrat.

Mr. McDonald is a resident of Riddleton in Smith County and his campaign website indicates that he is a 'farmer, small businessman and community leader'. He owns Catesa Farms. Further investigation indicates that he farms 4000+ acres of land in Middle TN and serves on the Soybean, What & Feed Grains Commodity Committee of the Tennessee Farm Bureau. He was the 1996 Sunbelt Farmer of the Year for Tennessee.

So far, so good...

Per McDonald's own website (here), he claims he will cut perks for legislators & refuse taxpayer-funded health insurance provided to state legislators.

"I'm not a politician," McDonald said. "What I see out of many of our Nashville politicians is a lot of fighting while we foot the bill. In the Senate, I'll cut perks like reimbursements for meals and travel expenses, I'll freeze Senators' pay, and I'll refuse taxpayer funded-health care."

"Every penny in the state budget is precious and sacrifices must be made. And I'll start in the Senate," he added. "And I'll stop efforts for a state income tax dead in its tracks."

At first glance, these proposed cuts to government spending appear to be a very noble cause and something near and dear to most conservatives. However, upon further investigation, the reason for Candidate McDonald's generosity becomes obvious! His pockets have been lined with government subsidies! Between 1995 and 2009, he received $932,416 in government conservation, disaster and commodity subsidies!

Yes ... almost ONE MILLION TAXPAYER DOLLARS have been funneled to him via the federal government's farm subsidy - "BAILOUT" - program!

Source: Smith County Farm Subsidies – Top Recipient

Mr. McDonald is the largest recipient of these farm subsidies in Smith County. He has collected money in five Tennessee counties in the last 15 years as well as a sixth listed as "Unknown County or Cooperative in Tennessee". He is the 412th largest collector of these bailout funds in the entire state of Tennessee where 146,474 farmers have collected these funds. In the 6th U.S. Congressional District (Bart Gordon's district), he is the 8th largest recipient of 24,623.

You may think that ALL farmers collect subsidies but this is not the case. According to the USDA, 62% of all farmers do NOT collect subsidies and this number was even higher in the recent past. (As recently as 2007, 82% of all farmers did not collect subsidies indicating that this bailout funding is dramatically on the rise.) Seventy-four percent (74%) of all subsidies are collected by the top 10% of all subsidy recipients - and many of those are large corporations. Many feel that these subsidies have led to the demise of many family farms. In addition, many feel that these subsidies provide undue advantage to the growers of five crops - corn, soybeans, wheat, cotton and rice - while livestock, poultry and produce farmers are not supplemented by taxpayer funds.

The total amount spent by the U.S. Government - AND YOU - THE TAXPAYER - on farm subsidies since 1995 is $156.2 BILLION!

What exactly are farm subsidies? Ken Cook's article on the Farm Subsidy Database entitled "Government's Continued Bailout of Corporate Agriculture" (here) provides insight into this abuse of taxpayer dollars. In addition, The Heritage Foundation wrote an excellent article in 2007 on the damage done to taxpayers, consumers and FARMERS by farm subsidies. We'd urge you to read it (here).

Of course, we are all very thankful for the very important and necessary work that farmers do and we have no doubt that Mr. McDonald is a hard-working man. For this, we thank him as well as all other farmers who provide the food to feed our citizens. However, most conservatives support a free market system in this country and do not support bailouts of banks, unions or FARMERS! The WCTP believes that it is disingenuous for Mr. McDonald to claim that he will be fiscally responsible if elected while he continues to collect huge taxpayer-funded subsidies from the federal government. Interestingly, we found a website which poses the question as to whether or not an elected official should be able to hold state or federal office while receiving these subsidies. (here) Isn't it common sense to assume that a recipient of these subsidies is not going to be fair and objective regarding this issue or other issues related to government bailouts?

Candidate McDonald states on his website that "Party politics and lobbyists will not be influencing my decisions". One must wonder, however, what type of influence $932,416 WOULD have on his decisions and his votes if elected.

Hmmm.....

ONE MORE "SMALL" DETAIL ABOUT GEORGE MCDONALD:

According to the Tennessee Registry of Election database, Mr. McDonald contributed $1000 to the pre-primary campaign of TN Income Tax 'king' Bob Rochelle during his 2006 bid for re-election to the 17th District State Senate Seat. Luckily for those of us who are AGAINST a Tennessee state income tax, MAE BEAVERS beat Bob Rochelle and we were able to avoid an income tax.

Understanding the Differences: Liberalism and Conservatism

For years, Conservatives have stood idly by while Liberal-Progressives maliciously redefined Conservatism as an extreme position. However, we believe that Conservatives espouse the patriotic principles of the Founding Fathers of this country and feel certain that an overwhelming majority of the American people are true Conservatives.

Conservatives views are not 'extreme'. WE REPRESENT THE MAINSTREAM! The real 'extremists' are those who wish to change or eliminate the fundamental rights outlined in our founding documents such as the Constitution and Bill of Rights and replace them with their brand of Progressive – regressive – ideology in which the government rules the people rather than the opposite. We fully believe that, unless voters understand the key differences between the Conservative (generally represented by the Republican Party) and Liberal-Progressive (generally represented by the Democrat Party) philosophies, they will continue to vote for politicians/political parties who do not represent their core values and, as a result, will continue to feel deceived by politicians who continuously make laws which are in conflict with the value system of the majority of the electorate.

We are now at a fork in the road of our Republic and, if it is to survive, we MUST become educated voters. If we continue to elect Liberal-Progressives to represent us in our State and U.S. legislatures, we will continue the march toward Socialism. Where will it end?

Unfortunately, the pressure on a legislator to vote the will of the leaders of his/her political party once he/she arrives in Washington is overwhelming. Therefore, the Democrat who claims to be 'fiscally responsible' when campaigning in Tennessee is likely to vote repeatedly for out-of-control government spending when faced with the pressures placed upon them by the far-left leaders in control of the House and Senate. San Francisco Democrat House Leader Nancy Pelosi does not represent Tennessee values yet so-called "Blue Dog" Democrat Jim Cooper votes with her 91% of the time! Based on his voting record, Jim Cooper is NEITHER a fiscal or social conservative. ("Blue Dog" Democrat Bart Gordon votes with her 97% of the time!)

A VOTE FOR A CANDIDATE IS A VOTE FOR THE AGENDA OF THE POLITICAL PARTY TO WHICH THEY BELONG!

Do not be fooled into thinking that an Independent candidate is any less subject to these partisan politics. In many instances, Independent candidates will caucus with one major party or the other. Therefore, we urge you to DETERMINE AND VOTE YOUR CORE VALUES!

Where do you stand on the philosophical spectrum?

CONSERVATIVE VIEW		LIBERAL PROGRESSIVE VIEW
Pro-life. Believe Abortion is wrong & that we must protect the life of the innocent (with exceptions possibly when the life of the mother is in danger). Believe that life begins at conception.	Abortion/Life	Pro-abortion. There should be no limits on abortion. The government should not interfere with a woman's right to choose. Many support late term abortion (partial birth abortion). Believe that life begins at birth. Believes that taxpayers should fund abortions.
While Conservatives are against the abortion of innocent babies, they support capital punishment in cases of those convicted of horrific crimes against humanity.	Capital Punishment	While Liberal Progressives have no problem aborting innocent babies, they usually fight for the life of those who commit heinous crimes. Does not believe in the death penalty.
Believes in a limited safety net that should be used for a short time only. Believes in personal responsibility. It is the responsibility of each parent to ensure that they can afford a child before having one. It is the responsibility of the parents to pay for the support of the child. Divorced parents should be required to pay child support. Believes that those on welfare should be required to work.	Welfare	Government should pay welfare to mothers who continue to have children outside of wedlock (and cannot afford to support these children) and should require nothing in return for this continual support (even if this support lasts for the entire life of the mother and, ultimately, the child). Believes in an permanent safety net and opposes any limits on the amount of time that a person should be able to collect welfare.
Believe in equal opportunity for all but not necessarily equal outcome. Outcome should be based on the efforts put forth by the individual. Support true equality for all. Does not believe that any one 'group' should be given preference (Affirmative Action). Does not believe that it is the right of the government to seize assets of one group to redistribute to another.	Equality	Claim to support equality but promote racial, ethnic and sexual orientation preferences. Believes in redistribution of wealth by the government in order to bring about their version of forced equality. Fully supports Affirmative Action.
Fully supports the Constitution as written by our Founding Fathers & believes in original intent. Believes that court decisions should be based on the Constitution rather than Judicial Precedence. Believes that Judges only have the responsibility to interpret the law as per the Constitution and Bill of Rights. Does not support Judges who 'make law' from the bench.	Constitution / Judicial Activism	Believes that the Constitution is an outdated document (living document) that must be updated to keep up with the times. Believes that Judicial Precedence and International Law are just as important as the Constitution. Believes that the easiest way to implement policies which could not get through Congress is via the nomination of activist Judges. These Judges make law from the bench with total disregard for the Constitution, Bill of Rights & the will of the people. (Example: Separation of Church and State, Abortion in Roe vs. Wade, Property Rights in New London, CT case)

Supports a strong national defense. Strongly supports the military and use of military force to protect and defend the United States. Supports "Don't Ask/Don't Tell".	Military / Defense	Weak on defense. Believes that the U.S. should be passive in issues of war and aggression. They believe that the political stance of the United States is responsible for the hate some countries have for the U.S. Believes that Gays should be able to serve openly in the Military.
Does not believe that health care is a right given to Americans by the Constitution. Believe that health care costs can be brought down by competition - especially across state lines, tort reform. Support health insurance via private insurance companies. Against government-controlled health care. Believes that there should be some limits on the outrageous amount of damages collected in certain litigation. Believes that there should be some protection for true victims but does not believe that the courts were meant to be used as a means of 'shaking down' health care entities including doctors and hospitals.	Health Care	Believes that health care is a right given to Americans by the Constitution. Believe that government can provide better and cheaper health insurance than private sector. Strongly support government-controlled health care. Does not support tort reform or does not believe that damage awards should be restricted in any way.
Supports very limited regulation of business and, instead, believe that free markets should reign. Supports capitalism.	Business Regulation	Supports strong government control of all business. Believes that capitalism is evil and, therefore, needs to be controlled. Uses regulation as a means of wealth redistribution.
Believes in small government because they believe that big government fosters dependency and stifles individual achievement - thus weakening society as a whole. Does not believe in world government because American citizens will lose the ability to elect those making laws.	Size of Government / World Government	Believes in invasive big government. Supports many aspects of world government because they believe that this will help them achieve redistribution of wealth worldwide.
Believes that marriage is between 1 man and 1 woman.	Gay marriage	Fully supports gay marriage.
Based on recent discovery of fraudulent claims made by IPCC, most believe that global warming is unproven (at best) or a hoax (at worst). Believes that global warming is an attempt by the left to control lives and behavior of individuals.	Global Warming	Fully believes in global warming despite discovery of fraud committed by primary global warming source, IPCC. Supports efforts to curb global warming via legislation to regulate energy usage in homes, businesses, vehicles, etc. thus control the lives of individuals.
Supports oil drilling in U.S. - on shore and offshore. Believes that there is limited current viable alternative to fossil fuels at this time because cost of alternative fuels is prohibitive. Believes that we should explore ALL forms of energy. Against Cap & Trade legislation & believes that it will create exorbitant energy bills for families & result in government control of private lives of individuals.	Oil Drilling / Cap & Trade	Against oil drilling both on shore and offshore. Wants to move to green energy and eliminate use of fossil fuels although this would eliminate a huge number of products used by Americans. Believes that exorbitant costs of alternative fuels is irrelevant. Wants to control every aspect of energy consumption via passage of Cap & Trade.
Supports low taxes and believes that low taxes drives the free market. Believes that citizens should keep the fruits of their labor. Believes that if tax rates remain low, individuals will start small businesses and economy will thrive.	Taxes/Wealth	Believes that the government should be able to tax as much as necessary to redistribute the wealth equally amongst all people. Believes that the wealthy obtained their wealth through unethical means and have the obligation to pay a larger percentage of their income in taxes.

Believes that jobs are created by the private sector. Fully supports the free market and trusts individuals rather than government.	Job Creation	Believes that government creates jobs. Wants to micro-manage private enterprise. Wants as many people on the government payroll as possible so that people will be beholden to government & allow Progressives to remain in power. Believes that the free market is corrupt and needs to be controlled and contained.
Believes that states & parents should retain control of their educational system. Believes in school vouchers, charter schools, home-schooling. Believes that the 2nd Amendment was a collective right of the State.

Civics Lesson: Know Your State and U.S. Representatives?

STATE LEGISLATURE

There is a State House of Representatives and a State Senate in Tennessee. They are known as the General Assembly. The State Senate is called the "upper house" while the State House is called the "lower house".

The State House of Representatives and State Senate make state laws and are required to adhere to the Tennessee State Constitution as well as the U.S. Constitution.

The Tennessee State House of Representatives consists of 99 members. Each State Representative represents a particular House district. In some instances, a district is comprised of an entire county while, in other instances, a district can contain multiple counties or only a small portion of a county. This is determined by the number of residents in the district.

Wilson County is comprised of two State House districts: District 46 and District 57.

Currently, District 46 is represented by Democrat Stratton Bone and contains the eastern half of Wilson County. This district also contains Trousdale County and Cannon County.

District 57 is currently represented by Republican Susan Lynn and contains the western half of Wilson County. It also contains a small portion of Sumner County.

The November election will determine who represents these districts for the next two years. Stratton Bone is running for re-election in District 46. Susan Lynn is not running for re-election in District 57.

Here is a map of the State House Districts in Middle Tennessee (here).

The State Senate is 1/3 the size of the lower house or 33 members. Each State Senator represents a particular Senate district. Therefore, there are 33 State Senate districts in Tennessee. State Senate districts are not divided in the same way as State House districts.

Wilson County is comprised on one State Senate district: District 17.

In addition to Wilson County, State Senate District 17 also consists of Clay, Macon, Trousdale, Smith, DeKalb and Cannon counties.

Currently, State Senate District 17 is represented by Republican Mae Beavers. She is running for re-election to this position in the November election. State Senators are elected for a term of four years.

U. S. LEGISLATURE

The U. S. Legislature – often referred to as 'Congress' – consists of the U.S. Senate and U.S. House of Representatives. They make federal law and are required to adhere to the U.S. Constitution.

In addition to representation at the state level by the Tennessee State Legislature or General Assembly, Tennessee residents are represented in Washington by 2 U.S. Senators. These are both statewide offices and are elected by the voting population of the entire state.

All Senators serve for a term of six years. One-third of the Senate is up for election every 2 years. Each state in the U.S. is represented by two Senators. Therefore, there are 100 U.S. Senators in Congress.

The current U.S. Senators for the State of Tennessee are Republican Lamar Alexander and Republican Bob Corker.

The U.S. House of Representatives consists today of 435 members – each representing a particular U.S. House District. The number of districts in the United States is determined by the population. Generally, each U.S. Representative represents about 600,000 people.

There are nine U.S. House Districts in the State of Tennessee (map here).

Wilson County is split between two U.S. Congressional Districts: District 5 and District 6.

District 5 is currently represented by Democrat Jim Cooper. The District consists of the western half of Wilson County, most of Davidson County and the eastern half of Cheatham County.

District 6 is currently represented by Democrat Bart Gordon. The District consists of the eastern half of Wilson County as well as Robertson, Sumner, Macon, Clay, Trousdale, Smith, Jackson, Overton, Putnam, DeKalb, Rutherford, Cannon, Bedford and Marshall counties.

U. S. Representatives serve for a term of two years. They are often referred to as "Congressmen".

5th District Representative Jim Cooper is running for re-election to his Congressional seat in the November election.

6th District Representative Bart Gordon is not running for re-election to his Congressional seat in the November election.

TIDBITS

CAUTION!! Radical leftist George Soros is using $45 million of his own money to sabotage America's Judiciary so that activist Judges can be installed in order to make laws from the bench and circumvent our Constitution! (Here)

Townhall.com recently published a story about the 6th District race between Diane Black and Brett Carter (here). Regarding Democrat Brett Carter, the author states: "Brett Carter, a lawyer, is the Democrat vying for his seat. Despite his claims to the contrary, it is without a doubt that a vote for Carter is a vote to keep pushing this country in the wrong direction."

In less than two years, the Obama Administration has increased our public debt by over 52%. DID YOU KNOW?... that more than 50 million Americans are on Medicaid, more than 40 million receive food stamps, close to 10 million receive unemployment insurance, and more than 4.4 million remain on welfare? Costs for these programs have soared: Cost for Medicaid has jumped 36% in two years, Jobless benefits have soared from $43 billion to $160 billion, food stamps program has risen 80%, to $70 billion, Welfare is up 24%, to $22 billion.

When he finally completed his transformation of America into a Socialist State, people finally woke up--- but it was too late. Add these up one by one and you get a phenomenal score that points to the fact that Barack Obama is determined to turn America into a Marxist-Socialist society.

All of the items in the preceding paragraphs have been put into place. All can be documented very easily. Before you disavow this, do an internet search. The last paragraph alone is not yet cast in stone. You and I will write that paragraph. Will it read as above or will it be a more happy ending for most of America ?

If you are an Obama Supporter don't be angry with me because I think Barack Obama is a Socialist. Far too many facts support he is, indeed, a Socialist. If you seek the truth you will be richer for it. Don't just belittle the opposition.

Search for the truth. Democrats, Republicans, Independents, Constitutionals, Libertarians all need to pull together or watch the demise of our free Republic. Pray for Americans to seek the truth and take action, for it will keep us FREE. Our biggest enemy is not China, Russia, North Korea, and Iran. Our biggest enemy is a contingent of politicians in Washington DC. The government will not help, so we need to do it ourselves.

Question: Will you delete this, or pass it on to others who don't know about Obama's actions and plans for the U S of A, so that they may know how to vote in November, and the ensuing years?

It's your decision.

Hope you come up with the same conclusion that I did....

Remember in November!
